Data Protection Statement

The information you provide on this form to the Sussex Association of Naval Officers (SANO) will be retained and used solely for the purposes of informing you of future events. Such data, whether on paper or in electronic format, is secured from public access, kept for only so long as it is needed and only shared with other organisations when required as part of a visit to a security-controlled location (visitors' names and car details). The SANO Executive Committee seeks to comply with all statutory data protection requirements. Your data will be stored and used in accordance with SANO's Data Privacy Notice which can be found on the SANO website.

In accordance with the Privacy Notice your consent is required to provide your name, car details and contact details on those occasions when a SANO event in which you are taking part includes a visit to a location where these details need to be provided to gain access.

Paying your subscription to the Association will constitute consent that the Association may hold your data (name, postal address, telephone number, e-mail address and subscription payment details) in order to send you by post or email communications relevant to the Association. Your data will not be shared with anyone without your consent. You are entitled to see your data at any time and to ask for any changes to be made or errors to be corrected.

If you consent to your data being held and used by SANO as described above and in the Privacy Notice, please tick YES below.
